

LO's Got Talent!

K-12 talent in music, art, dance, stage, photography, video and more!

ZOE COLGIN

Zoe is a sixteen-year-old at Lake Oswego High School. She competed in the Irish Dance World Championship in 2006 and was a National Champion Irish Dancer in 2008 and 2009. Zoe has been dancing for seven years. She is a great kid and a team leader who tutors and mentors younger students. "She works hard at everything she does," according to her dance teacher Gabrielle Maher at the Portland Irish Dance Academy. Zoe is also an honor student at Lake Oswego High School and is a writer on the Youth Board for the Lake Oswego Review.

CARLY WOOD

Carly is a fourth grader at Bryant Elementary School. She has a beautiful singing voice. She also likes to dance jazz and hip hop. She is learning to play piano. "Carly is an amazing girl with an amazing gift. She has touched many people without even knowing it," said Patty Burdick her former teacher. She has been pursuing her talent all her life. Carly is a member of the Oregon Children's Choir, participates in local plays like the "Wizard of Oz" and danced on the Lake Oswego Dance Academy Team at the Rose Garden.

STEVE RATHJE

Steve is an eighth grader at Lake Oswego Junior High. He is an artist and a professional actor. Some of Steve's accomplishments include juggling his professional acting career with the Artist Repertory Theatre of Portland, his school classroom work along with having an exceptional talent in art. "While Steve was in my clay 3-D class, he excelled at all he created. His attention to detail and his creativity were fantastic – all while he was also performing nightly at ART downtown!" said Debora Owen his teacher, "and most of those performances were sold out!"

Featured "Student Artist Spotlight" students will be showcased in a concert and gallery on May 13th at the LOHS auditorium. All ticket proceeds will benefit the LOSD Foundation!
