

LO's Got Talent!

K-12 talent in music, art, dance, stage, photography, video and more!

KRISTIN WONG

Kristin is a fourth grader at Bryant Elementary School. Kristin has been playing piano for four and a half years. "Kristin is an extremely bright and dedicated piano student who plays with beauty and power, and at a very high level," said Barbara McQuillen, the music specialist with the Lake Oswego school district. She has been studying with Patricia Scordato in Portland. Kristin won in her age category at the 2009 Oregon Music Teachers Portland District Festival. She received five consecutive superior ratings in the South Metro Junior Festival. She also won a prize at the Classical and Romantic Festival. She is also a very talented teacher for her peers on the keyboard unit in her music class. Besides piano, Kristin enjoys jazz, ballet and Chinese drawing and dance.

HELIA MEGOWAN

Helia is a third grader at Lake Grove Elementary School. Helia has been taking Ballet for over 4 years. She takes lessons with the School of Oregon Ballet Theatre. Helia also has played piano for three years. "She is a diligent worker. We push her hard and she willingly comes to task," said Tammy Sullivan the school administrator at Oregon Ballet Theatre. Helia has performed in the annual school performances. She likes to draw and write stories, and she loves to read.

ANNIE JOHNSON

Annie is a fifth grader at Palisades Elementary School. Annie is a triple threat because she has talent as a singer, dancer and actress. "Annie is very dedicated and conscientious. She always shares her talent by helping others," said Barbara McQuillen the music specialist for Lake Oswego Schools. "Annie is an example of someone who sets very high standards for herself and achieves them by hard work and discipline." For five years, Annie has been studying at Lake Oswego Dance School and for three years at the Krayon Kids Musical Theatre Company. She won the "Best Dance" award at school. She also was selected to join the Touring Troupe for Krayon Kids Elite where she will go to Scotland to represent the USA.

Featured "Student Artist Spotlight" students will be showcased in a concert and gallery on May 13th at the LOHS auditorium. All ticket proceeds will benefit the LOSD Foundation!
